

Message

From: Amoroso, Cathy [Amoroso.Cathy@epa.gov]
Sent: 9/28/2021 1:34:30 PM
To: Alexander, Shanna [Alexander.Shanna@epa.gov]

Laboratory analyses of the fish collected at the sample locations show little to no radiological contamination. The measured values are nearly identical to values found in local streams where no DOE discharges occur. The results indicate the detected isotopes are likely naturally occurring rather than due to legacy contamination in Bear Creek[AC1].

[AC1]Note to writers - These results are encouraging, but EMDF hasn't been built yet, and state and federal law requires water quality limits for radionuclides...